

Tax Administration
Research Centre

The 7th Annual TARC Conference
Thursday 11th and Friday 12th April 2019

Preliminary Call for Papers

The Tax Administration Research Centre (<http://tarc.exeter.ac.uk>) is hosted by the University of Exeter and conducts multidisciplinary research on all aspects of tax administration in order to strengthen the theoretical and empirical understanding of tax policy and its practical operation. The Centre was launched in 2013 and initially funded jointly by the Economic and Social Research Council and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs. TARC has subsequently developed into a global hub of research activity, hosting a variety of events and accommodating research visitors from across the world.

The 7th Annual TARC conference will be held at the University of Exeter on April 11th and 12th, 2019.

Submissions in all areas of tax administration are invited from any perspective including accounting, economics, psychology and law. Empirical, experimental, and theoretical papers are equally welcome, as are contributions from practitioners.

Those wishing to submit a paper should email an abstract of no more than 500 words, along with their contact details and institutional affiliation, by the close of business Friday 18th January 2019 to tarc@exeter.ac.uk

The final programme will be announced by mid-February 2019. Full papers will be required by Friday 22nd March 2019.
